

Poetry Exercise # 7

Using a universal image, convey a message in a poem. The poem does not need to rhyme or have meter, but the message must be displayed through figurative language. For additional credit for this exercise, you may include an image that you upload to the classroom website. Be sure to title the image “your last name.poetryexercise7” The image is due by Sunday and the poem is due Monday.